John Enters Keynote Speaker Space

This year, John tossed his hat into the keynote speaker space with a warm, inspirational, funny illustration of overcoming adversity that has struck an emotional chord, and a funny bone, with audiences.

Entitled "A Voice of Resilience and Tenacity", the keynote takes a look at John's journey from a speech-impaired kid to master Impersonator. And it's a brilliant combination of storytelling and performance.

To that end, John brings out his multiple personalities to help give voice to that arduous journey; and in the end, it brings down the house with tears and laughter. Leaving an audience transformed.

John Launches New Website

Months in the making, Johnny D was excited to announce the launch of his new website this year. He indeed put a whole new face on things. It's bright and colorful, just like John and all of his characters. It's animated, well-for the 5th

Consecutive Year

In an impressive and unprecedented run, Johnny D once again secured a winning spot in the Las Vegas Review Journal as best comedian and impersonator (Gold and Bronze, respectively). This is John's 5th consecutive win.

With that win, John continues to demonstrate that he successfully and continually refines his character studies, comedy writing and performances to bring his best to the stage. Year after year.

And while the accolade is a public acknowledgement of John's talent, the meat and potatoes of John's business is corporate.

John Returns
as Maaco's Host and Entertainer-At-Large
for an Unprecedented 22nd Year

Returning for an unprecedented 22nd Year, John has helped Maaco -- America's #1 auto paint and collision repair service -- energize and entertain audiences by driving content and key messages either as himself or through the seamless integration of his characters. Apparently, John is a huge value add to Maaco's conventions. Here's what Maaco's president had to organized and easy to use. There's so much depth and lots of great content. And it's a really great, entertaining website experience. Check it out at:

John Showcases
Stand-Alone
Host and Emcee
Services

Known for his business-appropriate and spot-on impersonations, this year John, an Emmy-nominated actor, stepped out of his disguises to showcase his authentic face, personality and undeniable talents as a stand-alone professional host and emcee. He's got the chops and the experience to build event ROE, engagement and impact. And he's dropped the kimono of characters and going solo far more often than not these days. Wait til you see what 2024 brings!

"THANK YOU for always being an amazing partner
to our team and franchisees!
We are all thankful for you and the joy you add
to our conventions."

Record-Setting Appearances on the Howard Stern Show

This is big end-of-year news. 2023 marked a record-setting number of appearances for John as Trump - 40+ and growing strong - on Sirius XMs The Howard Stern Show.

Also big this year. John typically records the sessions with Howard from his home studio in Las Vegas but this past summer John was invited to tour the studio in NYC and to meet the cast and the production team of this award-winning show... including 8 wins from the prestigious Billboard Nationally Syndicated Air Personality of the Year.
